The worst journey I ever had was when I flew to New York last year. I arrived at the terminal in plenty of time, but when I got to the check-in desk, there was an enormous queue. By the time it was my turn, there were no window seats left, so I had to sit in the middle of a row. The man at the desk didn't seem to like the photo in my passport, but in the end he let me through, but my scissors were confiscated during the security check. My baggage was called as soon as I arrived at the departure lounge, and I had to run to reach the gate in time. I sat next to a small child who screamed loudly when we took off and didn't stop screaming for the next two hours. The weather in New York was terrible when we arrived and I've never experienced such a scary flight. I was so relieved when we finally touched the ground. The worst thing was that when I went to baggage reclaim to fetch my luggage, I was told that my suitcase had been left behind. I spent my first two days in New York with no clothes!

- 5 There was so much / so many snow on the runway that the airport was closed.
- 6 Our neighbours have got such a / such noisy dogs that we have had to complain twice.
- 7 The taxi driver drove so / such slowly that we nearly missed our flight.
- 8 There were so / such a lot of passengers that there wasn't a single empty seat on the plane.
